Uploading Images

Once a buyer has purchased an item from your inventory, you will upload 'actual' slab images using the "Upload Image" page. You will do this by clicking on the  icon.

Here you will click the  icon to print the QRCode of each slab of the bundle, attach the QRCode to each slab, take a picture and click on  icon to upload image. Once the images uploaded are fine, the status changes to "Uploaded" and the images uploaded are viewable in "Order Tracking Details" for reference.

Uploading Images (cont'd)

Once you are on the Upload Image page, when you click on the  icon, you will be prompted to the display QRCodes page.

Here you can click the QRCode image for each slab, share or copy the QRCode image, take a clear picture of the QRCode in a letter size paper, 'attach it to the top right hand side corner of the slab', take a clear picture of the slab without any other label.

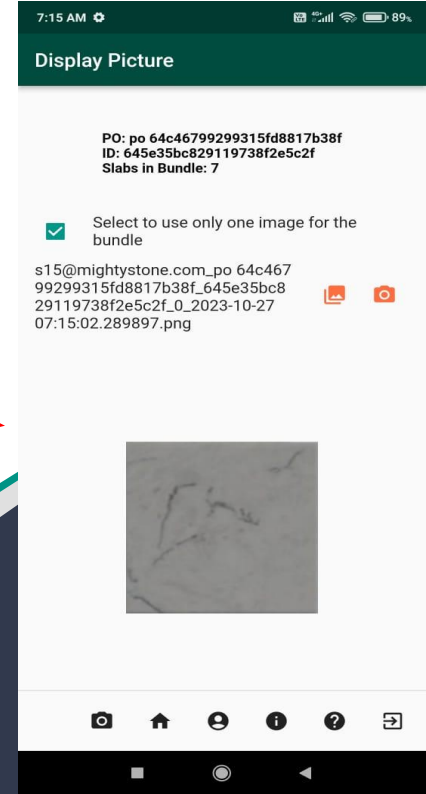

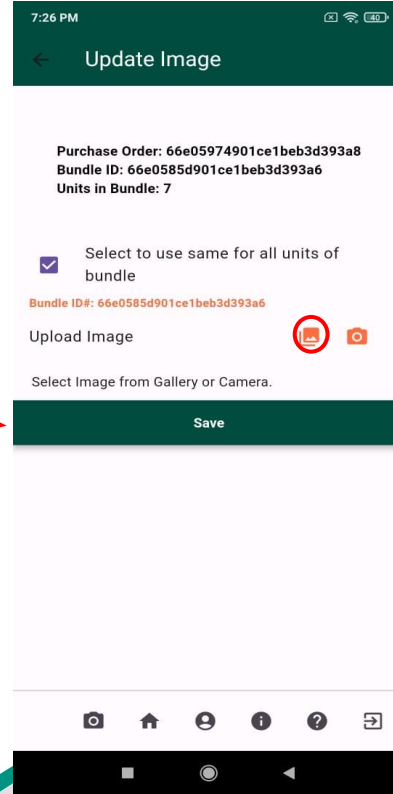

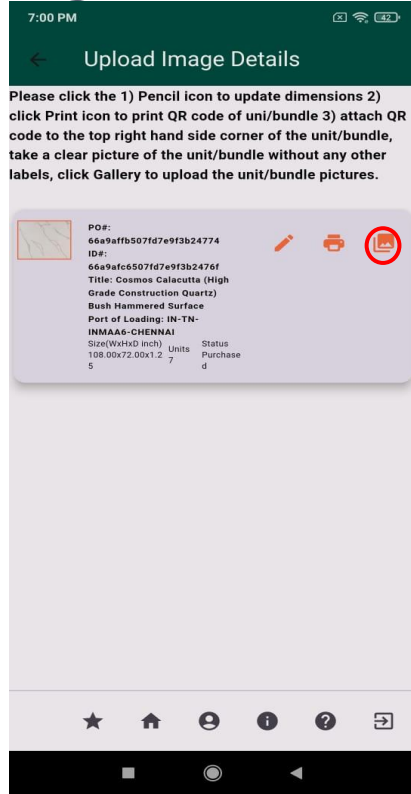

You will then click  icon to upload the slab image on the Upload Image screen. You can see a detailed graphic of this process on the next slide.

Upload one image for the entire bulk order

This is helpful for sellers if the bundle consists of several units such as premium surface tiles of 1 ft by 1 ft. In such scenarios, sellers can leverage this feature to upload a single tile image for buyer's review.
